

HAD A BROKER ARRESTED.

FREDERICK M'KENRY KITCHING CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

Andrew L. Taylor says he took a $1,000 bond belonging to him—Kitching says his arrest is to prevent him from testifying against Taylor in a suit of Mrs. Collins.

Frederick M'Kenry Kitching, a banker and broker at 2 Wall street, was arrested on Centre street yesterday afternoon by Detective Sergeant Harrington and Ruddy of Brooklyn, on a warrant issued by Justice Brenner of the Adams Street Police Court, on complaint of Andrew L. Taylor of 115 Montague street, who charges him with having taken, on May 7, a $1,000 bond of the Xenia Electric Light and Power Company of Xenia, Ohio, which he had deposited with Taylor as collateral in a business transaction. The specific charge against Kitching is grand larceny in the second degree. He was locked up in the Adams street station.

The detective said that Kitching lived in a mansion at New Brighton, N. Y., where he had a fine motor car, and that he was a very wealthy man. He was married on March 17 by the Rev. C. H. Treat at the Calvary Episcopal Church, this city. Kitching, the detective said, maintained a fine establishment and had a large stable of horses and carriages. Mr. Kitching seemed to take his money as a joke. He is a young man, tall and slender, with smooth face and prominent nose. He wore a neat fitting suit of dark clothes and spent the time in his cell smoking choice cigars. He was visited last night by his counsel and Mrs. Hattie Collins of 51 East Twentieth street, Mrs. Collins said that she had begun suit against Andrew L. Taylor, who had charged Kitching, to recover ten income bonds of $1,000 each which she left with him, and which, she alleges, he has failed to return to her on demand. She was introduced to Taylor by Kitching, and Mrs. Collins and Kitching now allege that Kitching's arrest was brought about by Taylor, in order to prevent Kitching from appearing as a witness against him. Mr. Taylor said last night that he had had dealings with Kitching for about two years, and first became acquainted with him when Kitching applied to him for help.

"I did all I could for the young man," said Mr. Taylor, "and gave him this bond for $1,000, but I was unable to get it back, notwithstanding I made many demands for it. I have taken a kindly interest in Kitching, and caused his arrest more to show him the error of his ways than for any other purpose."

Mr. Taylor said that Kitching was a nephew of the wife of Crowell Hadden, the President of the Long Island Bank, and that he was married on March 17 to a young woman, a resident of Newport, R. I., whose father was an intimate friend of Col. Waring and was attached to Col. Waring's office. Mr. Taylor said that Kitching told him that the young woman was wealthy. Mr. Taylor said that he had a business transaction with Kitching in which Kitching gave him a check for $200 which was not honored. He began suit to recover, and then Kitching made the check good.

The detective said that Kitching had given $25,000 to the wife of Crowell Hadden, who was a resident of Long Island, and that he was married on March 17 to a young woman, a resident of Newport, R. I., whose father was an intimate friend of Col. Waring and was attached to Col. Waring's office. Mr. Taylor said that Kitching told him that the young woman was wealthy. GAMBUCK ATTACKS A CHILD.

Picked at Her Hair and Drove Its Spine Into Her Head—The Cock Killed.

Elizabeth N. J. June 28.—One of the most violent fighting cocks in this city was killed, and eaten to-day because it had developed a very bad habit of attacking small children. The cock was owned by a man named Mackenzie, who lives on Ripley place.

Last Saturday a three-year-old child of John Carpenter of 183 Ripley place was passing near a vacant lot beside Mackenzie's yard, when the foot flew over the fence and landed on the child's head, striking her hair in the back. The cock began to drive its sharp spurs into the child's head, inflicting a number of ugly wounds. The child's mother, seeing her child in the hands of the cock, ran up her hands to defend her. The child was taken home and her injuries were treated. The cock was then shot and killed. It was found that the cock was a very violent fighter, and that it had a very bad habit of attacking small children.

OHIO'S DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

McLean and Brice Said to Be in a Deal to Name Hough for Governor.

COLUMBUS, O., June 28.—The Democratic situation to-night is beginning to get cleared as the candidates, their lieutenants, and the delegates to the State Convention begin to arrive. A very aspirant for Governorship, however, with the exception of Paul Sorg, is now on the ground, and a great retinue of retainers is constantly claiming with confidence everything in sight. This much mystified question of John R. McLean's choice is being answered slowly.

According to a story that a deal entered into some time ago between Brice and McLean. The representatives of both are on the ground, and a great retinue of retainers is constantly claiming with confidence everything in sight. This much mystified question of John R. McLean's choice is being answered slowly.

The government has been in the hands of the largest in the history of the party. A very liberal per cent. of the delegates are representatives of the Democratic party, and the party on the money question. The platform, accordingly, is a platform of conservatism.

ROSE FROM HER BED AND WALKED.

Fear of the Knife Served Mrs. Fordham to Leave a Brooklyn Hospital.

Fear of an operation to remove a tumor scared a Brooklyn Hospital patient, a woman, last week so badly that she arose from the sick bed to which she had been confined for weeks, dressed herself and walked out of the hospital. She was Mrs. E. Fordham of Bay Shore, Long Island. Her physicians at home had told her that unless the tumor was removed she would soon die. She added that the operation might kill her. She was in a feverish haste to be operated upon. Laid out on a mattress she was brought to Brooklyn in charge of a physician and was taken to the Seney Hospital. The doctors there, after her case had been under observation for two or three days, decided that the tumor was not more than the tumor. The operation did not seem to them to be a very serious one. They told her that the best thing to do was to have it over with at once.

THE ALLEGED WHEAT CORNER.

Mr. Armour and Other Chicago Dealers Decline to Discuss the Matter.

CHICAGO, June 28.—It is the general opinion on "Chicago" that there is no deal in July wheat it will have to come to the front soon. In spite of assertions to the contrary, a majority of the traders believe that there is a big deal on and that P. D. Armour is behind it. If either P. D. Hutchison or Edwin Partridge were holding active interest in the market, it is no doubt that the activity in July wheat would be charged up to them. Mr. Armour now supports the burden of flying rumors. An attempt to get him to break silence to-day was a failure. He has been very quiet, although he may be working from time to time, and then it was discovered that he was not in the market. He is not in the market. He is not in the market. He is not in the market.

SOME KENTUCKY SHOOTINGS.

How of Various Mobs That Resulted Fatally in the State.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 28.—An old feud was revived at a picnic on Straight Fork, Lewis county, Saturday afternoon, the result being that two men were killed and four others more or less severely wounded. Tom Logan was the first man to fire, shooting down Wyatt Cooper and putting six bullets in his body while he was dying. Three or four others, friends of Cooper, then fired, took part. Their names were not learned, but one was so badly shot that he died last night at 9 o'clock, and four others were badly but not dangerously hurt.

Logan made his escape, and has not been heard of since. He is said to be belonging to mountain families. There had long been enmity between them, but this is the first killing. The last time a shooting took place was on the streets of this city this afternoon at a picnic. The shooting was a result of a feud between two families. STRICKEN IN HIS CHURCH.

THE REV. FRANK M. ELLIS OF BROOKLYN DIES SUDDENLY.

He Had Just Completed the Charge to a Candidate for Ordination at the Washington Avenue Baptist Church—He Had Been Well and in Good Spirits During the Afternoon.

The Rev. Frank M. Ellis, pastor of the Washington Avenue Baptist Church, Brooklyn, died suddenly at the close of the ordination service at the Tabernacle Baptist Church, at Clinton street and Third place, last night. He had just delivered the charge to the candidate, who is the Rev. James Bristow, a graduate of Crozer Theological Seminary, at Upland, Pa., and who has been called as pastor of the Roseville Baptist Church at Camden, N. J.

In the afternoon Dr. Ellis had attended the examination of the candidate, and it was said that he spoke in the most eloquent manner. When Mr. Bristow was brought up for examination Dr. Ellis said to him, in speaking of the inspiration of the Scriptures: "You do not believe in the theory that is being advanced by certain teachers to-day that certain parts of the Bible are inspired and other parts are not."

After the afternoon session the Rev. Dr. Ellis, in company with the Rev. Dr. John Humphreys, pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist Church; the Rev. Dr. W. C. P. Rhodes, the Rev. George F. Warren, and the Rev. Mr. Burrow, had dinner with George B. Forrester, formerly Excelsior C. M. Forrester, who lives at 382 Degraw street.

Mr. Forrester said that the Rev. Dr. Ellis was of a lively disposition, and told some very clever stories, keeping his friends in excellent spirits. Dr. Ellis did not complain of the least of feeling tired, and was quite jolly when he started for the church, where he was to take part in the services.

Two Students of Michigan's Agricultural College Charged with Stealing a Horse.

LANSING, Mich., June 28.—It became known to-day that the persons who blew open and robbed the vault at the Agricultural College of $2,400 on the night of April 6 last have been apprehended. The detectives who have been working on the case since the crime was committed, were satisfied that the job was done by persons familiar with the surroundings and who had access to the vault.

BANKERS MURKIN & CO. ROBBED.

Their Paying Teller Arrested After He Had Admitted Stealing $9,375.

Herbert Taylor, 35 years old, of 145 West Sixty-seventh street, when arraigned for grand larceny in Centre Street Court yesterday, confessed that he had robbed his employers, John Munroe & Co., bankers, at 32 Nassau street, of $9,375.

Taylor, who was paying teller of the bank, had been suspected of embezzlement for some time. When he reported for work yesterday morning he was told that he was wanted in the morning. On answering the summons, he was taken to the court by Henry W. Munroe, the American representative of the bank, who has his headquarters in Paris, and Simon H. Stern of 40 Wall street, the bank's cashier.

ADVERSE VOTES IN THE COMMONS.

The Queen's Garden Party Causes Three Government Defeats on Trivial Matters.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN.

LONDON, June 28.—The garden party given at Buckingham Palace by the Queen to-day brought three defeats to the Government in the House of Commons. The party was crowded with members of the royal family and with foreign jubilate visitors. The Queen received the principal guests in a large marquee on the palace grounds, the Prince and Princess of Wales and others of the royal family doing the general honors. The bands of music, the number of the lake, and the gay toilettes of the ladies made an extremely pretty scene.

So many members of Parliament attended the garden party that the House of Commons was stripped. Business dragged along, and a division on a minor bill dealing with a church building in the Isle of Man resulted in the defeat of the Government by a vote of 92 to 65. Thereupon the Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, First Lord of the Treasury, made some remarks upon the difficulty of doing business during the jubilee celebration, and moved to adjourn.

Dr. Tanner, anti-Parnellite member for Midlothian, was elected to the House of Commons by a vote of 92 to 65. The previous divisions were obviously trifling issues, and do not affect the position of the Government.

SHOREDITCH'S GREAT WORKS OPEN.

They Will Destroy Garbage, Furnish Light, and Supply Hot Water to Baths and Laundries.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN.

LONDON, June 28.—Lord Kelvin, professor of Natural Philosophy in the University of Glasgow, this afternoon opened the works established by the municipality of Shoreditch, which are designed to destroy the local refuse, generate electric light, and supply hot water to the public baths and laundries. Lord Kelvin described the project as a stupendous scheme, and said that it had required remarkable courage in its application. The scheme briefly is as follows:

Carts will convey the street, trade, and household refuse to the works, where motor cars and electric hoists will distribute it upon tipping platforms, whence it will be shot by the aid of mechanical feeders into a dozen coils of a destructor, where it will be exposed to a forced blast produced by motor-driven fans, some of which will ventilate an adjacent sewer, and help the gases therefrom into the furnace to be burned.

MASKED MEN ROB A BANK.

HOLD UP EIGHT PERSONS AND GET ABOUT $10,000.

Four Men, Thought to Be Laughing Man Carey with a New Gun, Held the Butte County Bank at Belle Fourche, South Dakota, and All but One Got Away Into the Bad Lands.

Deadwood, S. D., June 28.—Four masked men made a desperate raid on the Butte County Bank at Belle Fourche this afternoon. Entering the bank with revolvers drawn they ordered the customers present and the bank officials to put up their hands. A little hesitancy on the part of Cashier Marble drew a shot from one of the robbers, which clipped off a piece of the cashier's right ear and enforced compliance with the command.

In the safe and on the counters there were bills and coin amounting to about $10,000. The robbers accounted it all into a sack, backed out of the bank, and mounting their horses, which had been stationed near the door, rode away. The alarm was given immediately and in a few moments a well-mounted and armed posse was in pursuit. Within a few miles from town the posse came up with the fugitives and a running fight ensued, which resulted in one of the robbers surrendering. The others, being better mounted, escaped, and were closely pursued and have very little chance of escaping.

The man who was captured is a stranger in the hills, and it is believed that he was used to locate the place and fix all the details. The other men are believed to be the remnants of the once famous band of outlaws, known as the Carey band, which was active in the Black Hills until ten years ago, when they held up the iron-bound treasure coach of the Wells-Fargo Company at Buffalo Gap and were almost exterminated. They got $50,000 in gold at that time, and the surviving members got out of the country with it.

SAVED HIMSELF UP.

A Defaulting Express Messenger of New York Surrendered in Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 28.—Edward Loony, formerly a messenger for the Western Express Company in New York, walked into Capt. Elliott's office at Detective Headquarters this morning and gave himself up. According to his own statement he is wanted by the New York police on charges of having stolen $600 from the express company. Loony was employed as a messenger on the express company's wagons, and it was among his duties to deliver C. O. D. packages. In this manner, he says, he managed to get $600 together and then left New York for Chicago. Since then he has been walking about the country fearing arrest. He arrived in Chicago a few days ago, penniless, and says he was compelled to give himself up.

Rena, Giuseppe Venturilla, and Lorenzo Salardino, who were taken from jail and lynched in Louisiana in 1896, $6,000.

CHAPMAN'S VISION OF A COLONY.

He Would Like to Get All Disorderly Women Fenced in in the Tenderloin.

AN ATTACK ON THE PRESIDENT.

A Syracuse Frenchman Objects to Wine at the White House.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 28.—During the people's reception to the President and Mrs. McKinley at the White House, the Rev. G. W. Olcott, a Frenchman, took occasion to assail President McKinley. The fact that the President permits wine to be served at his table and at the same time claims membership in the Methodist church, he said, was a contradiction. The preacher said that Mr. McKinley was no true member of the Methodist church, and that he was a hypocrite. He said that he was a Frenchman, and that he was a member of the Methodist church. He said that he was a Frenchman, and that he was a member of the Methodist church.

SUICIDE BY HARLEM MERE.

FIVE DOCTORS WORK OVER A GIRL BY BICYCLE LAMPLIGHT.

She Had sat on a Bench Beside the Water and Swallowed Poison—Bicyclist and Police Scour for Help, but Nothing Availed—A Wheelman Says It's Clara Mulligan.

A short and rather plump young woman in a pink skirt waist was seen to enter Central Park at 10 o'clock last night by the 106th street entrance and walk up the path leading by McGowan's Pass Tavern. She walked along slowly until she reached a bench opposite a little inlet of the Harlem river, the pond in the northern corner of the Park. It was dark where she sat and nobody could see what she was doing.

A few moments later she was heard moaning. Some pedestrians went up and spoke to her. She seemed to be in great distress and could not or would not answer questions. A three-quarter mile walk was made in a search for help, but nothing was found. A bicycle was called, and a hurry call was sent to the Harlem Hospital for an ambulance. Then the police and citizens scurried around the neighborhood for physicians, and soon there were no less than five doctors there.
